Each family tree shows the reported children, parents, grandparents and great-grandparents of a family group. In order to reduce redundancy, any family group which is wholly included within another family tree may not be reported separately.

Above each of the great-grandparent boxes (top row), a continuation family tree reference number is shown if the great-grandparent is recorded as a child in the continuation tree. A continuation reference number is also shown to the left of a grandparent or parent box if that individual has siblings reported in the continuation tree; and beneath a child box (bottom row) if that individual has children reported in the continuation tree.

In cases of multiple marriages, a continuation reference number preceded by "=" is shown to the right of a parent box. This number references the previous and/or next tree in which that individual is shown with another partner.

In cases of adopted (or fostered) children, the parental connection is shown with a dashed line and a continuation reference number preceded by "=" is shown within the individual's box. This number references the tree in which that individual is shown with his or her natural parents.

4. Eulogy by Jim Smalley

Today we gather here to give thanks to Almighty God for the life of the only three-and-a-half foot giant I've ever known, Laura Nicole "NIKKI" Breaux. I understand that there are folks from all over who have come here today, because Nikki has touched so many lives directly, AND indirectly. There are 2200 Episcopalians in Northwest Houston who have never met Nikki Breaux, but when they get to Heaven, they'll recognize her! Even their lives have been changed because of Nikki.

I'd like to share with you some meditations. The first was written by Linda, Nikki's mother, late one night. It is entitled "Little Angel"... The second is entitled "Heaven's Very Special Child."...

I will never forget the first time I met Nikki. It was in McDonald's, one of her favorite places, and she was 2 and 1/2 years old, sitting in a stroller. I remember very clearly feeling sorry for her. There's something wrong with her. I thought. She's not normal. I have spent the last 13 and 1/2 years finding out how truly wrong I was. No, she was not normal. THANK GOD!

Very recently, I came across something written by a Roman Catholic Christian who lives in Australia. This man is the grandfather of a child with Downs' Syndrome, and he struggled with so many questions. He imagined in his prayer one day that he and his family met with Jesus, and because this man is a very talented novelist, what he discovered in his prayer found its way into one of his novels. He writes of Jesus' reply to the biggest question of all - WHY!?? I think that all of us, having known Nikki, will find Jesus' reply ringing very true.

JESUS says, "I know what you are thinking. You need a sign. What better one could I give than to make this little one whole and new? I could do it; but I will not. I am the Lord and not a conjuror. I gave this mite a gift I denied to all of you - eternal innocence. To you she looks imperfect - but to me she is flawless, like the bud that dies unopened or the fledgling that falls from the nest to be devoured by the ants. She will never offend me, as all of you have done. She will never pervert or destroy the works of my Father's hands. She is necessary to you. She will evoke the kindness that will keep you human. Her infirmity will prompt you to gratitude for your own good fortune.... More! She will remind you every day that I am who I am, that my ways are not yours, and that the smallest dust mote whirled in darkest space does not fall out of my hand.... I have chosen you. You have not chosen me. This little one IS my sign to you. Treasure her!"

Treasure Her. For the past several days and for the next several days and indeed months, we will be telling Nikki stories - all about what she said, and did, and meant. We will remember how much she loved going to Wal-Mart, and how -Five one—dollar bills were worth infinitely more than one five-dollar bill. We will remember all of those imaginary husbands she had in Dallas... when Elizabeth Taylor gets to Heaven, she and Nikki will have to compare notes. We will remember Nikki's power to rename people. Before Nikki came along, my parents were Linda and Frank. After Nikki's touch, they have forever become Linnik and Frak. I guess it's better than FRIK and Frak!

I can see Nikki now, in a purple bikini, driving a red Mazarati, heading toward the ski slopes, where she'll meet Jesus, and...
they'll slalom together.

And I remember a Sunday morning in this very church, in that space immediately in front of this very altar, when Nikki received for the very first time the sacrament of Christ's body and blood. And Fr. Jim Doiron said, "Nikki, Jesus wants to COME to you in a very special way this morning!" My God, if we could all live that truth, the silly and obscene divisions between Christians would cease to exist. Nikki would like that very much.

LINDA, BALE, PAUL, and TOOTI - you. all provided such a wonderful family for truly Heaven's Very Special Child. When I look at you, I'm reminded of another family two thousand yews ago, who were told they would raise a special child. The woman we now know as the Blessed Virgin Mary, The man as St. Joseph of Nazareth. Did they know what they were getting into when they agreed to this? DID YOU? How could you? Like that family, yours have experienced struggles, confusion, and loss. But like that family, you have chosen to share your special child with us. We all THANK you. If you hadn't, we all be far less HUMAN!

Nikki taught us so, so many things. She taught us something about heroes and the amazingly surprising packaging they sometimes come in. Not all heroes look like John Wayne, or are they United States Marines. Sometimes heroes are little girls with lots of health problems and lots of Questions.

She taught us all something about courage in the face of incredible pain and uncertainty.

She taught us about the power of living NOW, living in TODAY, not in yesterday, not in tomorrow. She was one of the very few human beings I know who did that. She taught us to seize the day, this day - CARPE DIEM! What a wonderful lesson!

She taught us about the sheer power and glory of the imagination, and its ability to create larger and better worlds.

She taught us that we are, all of us, frail AND glorious. We are earthen vessels, filled with the LIVING GOD. But we all have cracks. We're all cracked pots, each with our own particular crack. Yet glorious, because the Living God chooses to dwell in us, REMARKABLE! And as for Nikki, well St. Paul told the early Christians that he didn't know how God would remake us after death, but that he was sure that not even our wildest desires or imaginings could compare with what God has in store for us. I shudder to think about how Nikki must be now — one of HEAVEN'S GREATS!
Today we say "good—bye" to our little giant, but a special sort of good-bye. The Spanish have 2 ways of saying good-bye. One is ADIOS, one is HASTA LUEGO. ADIOS means good-bye, I may never see you again. HASTA LUEGO means "until later". HASTA LUEGO NIKKI!

In the old days, ships would sit in harbor waiting for a breeze to blow. When the captain felt the first stirring of the wind, the breath of God, the crew would unfurl the ship's sails so that the ship could ride the wind onto the open sea. The people would stand on the dock, watching excitedly as the ship, full of its cargo and crew would depart, and they would say, "There she goes." And they would watch as the ship grew smaller and smaller and then became a speck on the horizon, and then they saw nothing. BUT, on the other side of the water, people stood waiting on the dock, and at first they saw nothing, then a speck on the horizon. "Then the ship would grow larger and larger until the people welcomed the ship into port, Nikki is our beautiful little ship with a precious cargo and a wonderful crew, and this little ship has seen rough waters. She is now a speck on the horizon, but on a far shore, angels stand on the dock, jostling each other for a better position, hoping to catch a glimpse of the little ship and perhaps even to meet this little legend who had such a profound impact on so many lives. Nikki's parents are surprised today, PLEASANTLY so, that there are so many of us from so many places. I'm not. Nikki touched us, and we could not help but respond. So on behalf of Nikki's family, thank you for your presence.

Nikki's loss means that an enormous hole has been ripped in our universe, and we mourn. But make no mistake about it, we mourn not for Nikki, but for ourselves. Yet, yet I can think of no greater testimony to the presence of God than Nikki's absence and that very same hole. He grieves too, and allows that hole to become a WINDOW, through which we might reach up and touch God's face. And when we catch a glimpse of His face, we may be, or not be, very surprised to discover that God's face looks very familiar. I think God's face looks a lot like Nikki.

And so for you and I gathered here today, Nikki’s family and friends, what shall we do to honor our little saint and to say “thank you” to almighty God for her presence in our lives, for HER LIFE? I think she would like for us to live TODAY, to live life to the fullest, cherishing every precious moment. I think she'd like us to use our imaginations a bit more, to create large, better, kinder worlds. I think she'd want to laugh at ourselves, yes, at our world - to let laughter magic in us. And when life gets to be a pain in the rump, let's tell it, in the immortal words of Nikki Breaux, to BUZZ OFF!!!

We love you Nikki, and we always will. And we look forward to seeing you again!

Service was at St. Jules Catholic Church.

Roscoe Fraley, an Erie Fireman, Killed Here

Roscoe Fraley, aged twenty one yrs, an Erie Fireman, died at the Orchard hospital this morning about 8 o'clock from shock and loss of blood following an accident in the Erie yards this morning about 5 o'clock when both legs were so terribly crushed by a switch engine that it was necessary to amputate them at the hips. Both legs were taken off close to the trunk of the body in an effort to save his life but he had suffered a great loss of blood before he reached the hospital and he died about forty-five minutes after being taken from the operating table. He was removed to the hospital in the ambulance and was conscious until taken to the operating room. When asked regarding the accident he said a switch engine backed into him. Mr Fraley had just come in off his run and he and his engineer, Lewis Strawsbaugh, of this city, were walking through the yards when the accident occurred. Because of the steam the switch engine was throwing off, the men could not see it's approach and the engine struck Mr Fraley s it backed up. The young man came here from Sandy Hook Kentucky last winter and worked for the Marion Steam and Shovel company until spring when he returned to his home in Kentucky. During the summer he came back to Marion and secured employment as a fireman for the Erie. He was twenty one years of age in August and registered in the August draft. Mr Fraley leaves his parents, Mr & Mrs J A Fraley and a sister Grace at Sandy Hook and two brothers in this city, D T Fraley, also an Erie fireman, and Alfred Fraley, who is employed by the Marion Steam & Shovel company. The remains will be shipped to Sandy Hook either this evening or tomorrow and will be accompanied by both brothers and possibly Mr Strawsbaugh.

Boyd, Oregon was a town in Wasco County, Oregon, United States, disincorporated in 1955, and now vacant except for a few abandoned homes, weathered outbuildings, and a derelict wooden grain elevator surrounded by the wheat fields, which still produce the grain that used to fill it. The site of the former settlement is located 9.5 miles southeast of The Dalles, on the east side of U.S. Route 197 from which it is visible at a distance.

62. Notes for CHRISTOPHER C. FRALEY:

Christopher Fraley was born on his father's farm in Castlewood (Russell County) Virginia on Wednesday, 20 March 1844. At the age of five or six, he moved with his family to Valley Creek, Virginia. He grew up on the farmstead of his parents and became a farmer like his ancestors before him.

When the Civil War started on Wednesday, 9 January 1861, Christopher was sixteen years old. He did not join the army of Virginia but remained at home with his sisters and younger brother, Mitchell. His two older brothers, Granville and Henderson, as well as his brother-in-law, John D. Harris, volunteered for Confederate service during the summer.

On Sunday, 6 April 1862, seventeen days after turning eighteen, Christopher went to Moccasin Gap to Camp Mocassin and volunteered for a period of three years. He was sworn in by General H. Marshall and assigned as a teamster to Company E, 64 Virginia Mounted Infantry under Captain H.G. Slemp. The records are sketchy, but Christopher probably served until the end of the war on Sunday, 9 April 1865.
After the war, Christopher returned home to Valley Creek. He resumed farming with his father and brothers, Granville and Mitchell. In 1873, Christopher built a log house on a parcel of land given to him by his father. The house was located about half-a-mile below Rich and Caroline Fraley's house.

Caroline Jemima Osborne, daughter of Stephen Hugh Osborne and Ruth E. Powers of Scott County, became Christopher's wife, Saturday, 20 December 1873. They moved into their log house where they lived the remainder of their lives. Their children were Lilburn P., William R., Helen L, Mary Ruth and Andrew J.

Caroline Jemima died of pulmonary tuberculosis, Monday, 28 July 1913. She was sixty-eight years old. Christopher died at age seventy-eight from arteriosclerosis as a result of suffering chronic nephritis during the last five years of his life. His death was on Thursday, 1 June 1922.

Christopher was living with George and Helen Vicars at the time of his death. He didn't leave a will nor was an estate sale held, because he had previously divided his land and personal property among his heirs.

Caroline and Christopher were buried in the family cemetery located at the top of the hill behind their home.

A new twist in his real name, came from the obituary of Robert, Sr., in that he said his father's name was Boone friley.

Publisher: NARA

State: Kentucky

Arm Of Service: Infantry

This picture is a copy of an old tin-plate from my Grandmother Pearlie Mae Friley. It is the only know photo of Robert and Serra.

My Grandmother had the original approved document and it was passed on to me.

Found on-line was the ledger entry (Scanned image) authorizing the application.

Although his pension was approved, it most likely went to his wife, Serra.
Robert appears in the 1870 U.S. Census in New York City apparently there on a visit.

_Applies to: Robert (The Elder) Friley_\(^412\).

64. NOTE from Robert Friley III: Hattie Friley recalled that the Friley Family came to Cattlesburg, Kentucky from Wise County, Virginia. This appears to be verified from other Friley documents.

_Applies to: Robert (The Elder) Friley_\(^412\).

65. NOTE from Robert Friley III: Hattie Friley remembered grandmother's name as Sarah. Census records indicate the spelling as Serra and one census listed her name as Lena. A look at a scan of the original census listed her name as Serra.

Serra was living with Robert (Junior) and Pearlie Mae when she received Robert (The Elder) first pension payment. There is no record of when she died.

Serra matches almost exactly the description of a Fliley woman and she could very well have been a cousin to Robert (The Elder).

Her tombstone is bearably readable and is listed in findagrave.com as Sena but a close inspection makes it to be Sera.

I believe this to be the case.

- Joanne Pezzullo

It is "said" that she died in childbirth on Feb 17, 1878 in Elliott Co., KY. In the 1860 Morgan Co., KY federal census she is called Ellender and has a son named George W. I have not found the 1870 census yet. In the 1880 Newcombe, Elliott Co., KY Fed Census Ellender Gibson is gone and a Vina has appeared as James Gibson's wife. In the 1900 Newcombe, Elliott Co., KY Fed Census Levina has a birth month and year of Oct 1842 and states she has had five children born and four still alive. She has to be the Second wife because in the 1860 census Ellender would have been 15 or 16 years old when married and in the 1900 census she states she was 22 when married PLUS living with them is James Gibson's brother in law Solomon Osborn-therefore Vina or Levina Osborn NOT Fraley. So death by childbirth for Eleanor/Elizabeth/Ellender D. Fraley Gibson works for me.

84. Notes for SAMUEL BERTON WATKINS:

When Samuel spoke of the Civil War, it would be of the pranks he and other soldiers would pull on the officers, such as cutting off the buttons on the officers uniforms while they slept.

Samuel married Dorinda Frances Bell, daughter of Jeremiah and Dicy (Gill) Bell, on 17 February 1868 in Nesho (Newton), Missouri. Samuel had met Dorinda Frances Bell during the war when his unit was stationed in Missouri. The couple lived first in Madison County, Arkansas right after their marriage. They then moved back to Newton County, Missouri where Dorinda's parents lived. They lived there for several years and then moved back to Madison County, Arkansas. They moved onto the old homeplace of Samuel's parents. Samuel inherited the home. The family lived there until 1908 when Samuel sold the farm and they moved near Aurora, Arkansas, located not far from Delaney, Arkansas. After they grew older, they sold their farm at Aurora and moved to Kingston, Arkansas where some of their children lived. They lived with their son, John, at Kingston in their later years.

They were married after the war was over on February 17, 1868 in Missouri.

Their six younger children were born there. They then moved back to Delaney (Madison), Arkansas and lived on the old home place of Samuel's parents. They sold that farm in 1908 and bought a farm at Aurora, Arkansas, not far from Delaney, Arkansas. 95. Notes for WILLIAM R. FRALEY:

William R. Fraley, known as Rich Fraley in the community, was born on the Fraley farm in Castle's Woods (Russell County) Virginia. He was born circa 1806 and was probably the fifth child of William and Nancy Smith Fraley. As a young man, Rich lived and worked on his father's farm. He lived with his parents until he married. He was not listed separately on the census records until 1840. He married Caroline E. Clay, daughter of Lucy Clay of Russell County. Caroline was born circa 1815 in North Carolina. Rich and Caroline were married in Russell County circa 1836. They set up housekeeping in a cabin on his father's land. Rich may have built the cabin or it could have been already standing on the property and occupied by other Fraleys before him. Rich and Caroline inherited the land and cabin from William.

"6th I give to my son William R. Also a small lot laid off for him at the South east of my land beginning on a chinquepin oak on the hill to the outside line, providing he pays my daughter Celia Fraley one hundred dollars within two years of my dec."

98. The Martin Fraley, mentioned in the Will of Andrew, father of the five grandchildren (above), was born in 1816/17 and died or was killed during the Civil War, on 25 August 1862 (Scott Co. Death Register). Of all the descendants of Frederick Friley, Martin appears to be the only one to have resided in Wise County Virginia. Since Robert (The Elder)'s family was said to have came from Wise county, it is probably safe to presume that Martin was his father or gardian. (Could have ben an uncle, but that seems unlikely.)

Martin Fraley cast the first vote in the first election held in Wise Co. in 1856.

He volunteered in the Confederate Army under Col. L. H. N. Salyers, at Wise Courthouse, June 3, 1861, when Salyers organized his company of 101 men, known as the "YankeeCatchers". This company later became part of Co. H 50th Virginia Volunteers and served throughout the war, first under Gen. Floyd, then Stonewall Jackson, and at Chancellorsville, Spotsylvania Courthouse and the Wilderness under Gen. Robert E. Lee.

At the battle of Greenbrier, it is said that Col. Salyers commanded his men to lay down and fire on the enemy. All obeyed, except Martin Fraley, who had been commanded three times by Col. Salyers to do so, but still refusing and still firing on the enemy was soon shot down. Listed on Col. Salyers' payroll as sick at White Sulphur Springs, August 11, 1861.

109. James and Margaret Watkins left Floyd County, Kentucky about 1839 on their way to Arkansas. They went by way of Indiana which was the common migration route. They stopped in Indiana for a short period. A son, Reuben, was born there in 1840 before the family moved on westward. The territory of Arkansas had opened up with a promise of land and wealth.

James and Margaret settled in Delaney, Madison County, Arkansas and raised a large family. James and Margaret were the parents of fourteen children.

James Watkins died after 1870 and before 1880 and is buried in an unmarked grave on his old home place in Delaney, Madison County, Arkansas. Margaret lived several years longer than James. She was said to be a small, dark eyed and dark haired woman. Dark hair and eyes are a trait of the Fraley family. She is buried next to James and a young son who was killed by "Bushwhackers" during the Civil War. It is not certain which of the young boys this was, but it could have been Isaac or James. Their graves are marked only by large field stones.

110. The scourge of northeastern Kentucky during the Civil War, Captain Sid Cook was born in Russell County, Virginia circa 1832. The notorious guerrilla was in reality, Algernon Sidney Lee, the son of Martin and Fanny Lee. Changing his name to Cook, he married Nancy Friley in Russell County on November 20, 1857. His 26 year old bride was the daughter of Henry and Mary Friley. Cook later settled in eastern Kentucky and by 1860 was residing in Boyd County. In addition, a son, Fletcher, was born about 1857 and a daughter, Elizabeth, in 1859. Cook's household also included two stepchildren, Rufus B. born circa 1849 and Louis born about 1854. Following the out-break of the Civil War, Sid Cook moved his family to Carter County. Cook was killed in Castlewoods, Russell Co., Va, in January 1865 by Cleve Boyd, a fellow rebel.

Cook's widow continued to reside in Carter County after the war where she earned a scandalous reputation in her own right. Carter County court records reveal that she was charged with concealing stolen property by Charles Kitchen in 1868. Isom Davidson, the writer's ancestor was among many local men who testified in her defense. While they agreed that she was a "lewd woman" who was "friendly with too many men" she was no thief! She disappears from the records shortly afterwards, although her son Rufus B. was still residing in Carter County in 1880. Nancy Cook died April 16, 1895 at Newcastle, PA. Applies to: Algernon Sidney Cook.

Applies to: Mary Ann 'Polly' Fraley [Goosey]

116. Andrew Jackson Friley was born sometime in the year 1823, in what was then Estill County, Kentucky. He was the sixth child of Benjamin Franklin Friley, born circa 1788 in Russell County, Virginia and Sarah Maloney, born circa 1795 in North Carolina. Not much is known about Andrew's early years, except that he probably had a typical frontier wilderness childhood.

At 16 years of age, Andrew first married a young lady named Eda Hamilton of Estill County, Kentucky, born circa 1825-1826. Eda was the daughter of Patrick Hamilton. Since both Andrew and Eda were under age, Andrew being 16 and Eda being 13 or 14 years of age, their parents had to sign Parental Consent Papers giving permission for them to get married. These papers are filed at the Estill County Courthouse in Irvine, Kentucky. The records are in "Marriage Misc Book 5", page 116 and "Marriage Book 5", page 49. Benjamin Friley signed for Andrew and Patrick Hamilton signed for Eda, giving permission for them to marry. Andrew and Eda were married on September 13, 1839 in Estill County, Kentucky. They were listed in the 1840 Estill County, Kentucky census with one child, Mary Jane Friley, age 1, born circa 1840. Andrew, in his early adult years, was a miner by trade. He is listed in the 1840 Census of Estill County, Kentucky as being engaged in mining. Eda Hamilton Friley died in the early 1840s. The exact date and location is unknown at this time.

Andrew and Eda's only child, Mary Jane Friley, was married in May 1858 in Breathitt County, Kentucky to Fielding Hensley, born April 1836 in Montgomery County, Kentucky. Fielding and Mary Jane Hensley were the parents of eight children.

Andrew Jackson Friley married second, Sarah Ann Ketchum, born circa 1825. Sarah Ann was the daughter of Joseph Ketchum and Sarah (Sally) King Ketchum of Estill County, Kentucky. Andrew and Sarah Ann were married May 4, 1845 in Estill County, Kentucky. Andrew and Sarah moved to Breathitt County, Kentucky in the late 1840s. They were listed with their family in the 1850 Federal Census of Breathitt County, Kentucky.

Sometime in the late 1840s, Andrew was saved and devoted his life to Christ. His occupation is listed in the 1850 Census as a clergyman. Andrew was a minister of Christ Church in Eastern Kentucky. Andrew died as a result of consumption in March of 1860, age the age of 39. Andrew and Sarah had eight known children. All of the children were born in Breathitt County, Kentucky. After a mourning period following Andrew's death, sometime during the mid to late 1860s, his wife Sarah Ann married a man named Carpenter and moved away. We have lost track of her after this event and as a result no information on her later years are known at this time. We do know from Federal Census Records, that the family was still together in the early 1860s. We also know that most of the children stayed in the Breathitt County vicinity with relatives. Two of the girls are listed in Lee County census with a family presumed to be relatives. James Burton Friley is listed in the 1870 Breathitt County, Kentucky census, living with his father Andrew's brother, Henry, and sister, Sidney Friley.

117. After the death of her husband, Andrew Jackson Friley, Sarah Ann was said to have remarried to a man named Carpenter, but additional information uncovered from Court Records in Breathitt County, Kentucky Courthouse revealed that Sarah Friley may not have remarried in the mid to late 1860s as everyone thought. Court Orders for the June term of the Breathitt County, Kentucky Court, as recorded in their Order Book on page 218, dated 17th day of June 1885. This Order states that one Eliza Haddix was duly appointed Committee (Guardian) for Sarah Friley as an incurable lunatic. The Order states that she accepted the post and was approved and duly sworn as the law directed.

Eliza Haddix was the sister of Sarah Ann Ketchum Friley. This information, plus the fact that Andrew and Sarah's children were split up and living with different family members and friends as seen in the 1870 Breathitt County and Owsley County, Kentucky Federal Censuses, would indicate that after Andrew's death, Sarah became mentally unstable. It would have been highly unusual, in that time period, for a mother to have gotten remarried and not carried their children with them to the new home. Research is ongoing in this mystery.

121. James B. Friley, who was perhaps the oldest child of Frederick and Chloe Fraley was born in Rowan Co., NC in 1759. He was married to Elizabeth Osborn, Russell Co., Order Book 3, p. 189. He enlisted in Washington Co., VA, (now Russell Co.) for service in the Revolutionary War on March 3, 1779, as an Indian Spy, in Captain John Snoddy’s Company, Colonel William Campbell’s Regiment. He enlisted for a second tour of duty in May, 1782, also as an Indian Spy, under Colonel Daniel Smith and Captain Charles Bickley. He made application for pension in Floyd Co., KY, June 24, 1834, wherein he stated that he had always lived in the woods (frontier). When he applied for pension he stated that he had lived for many years in Floyd Co., KY, but was then living in Cabell Co., VA (now West VA) at the home of his son-in-law. (From Pension statement in Floyd Co. Court).

 Applies to: James B. Fraley.

122. William was born circa 1764 in Rowan County, North Carolina. He was probably the fifth child of Frederick Friley. Six of William's brothers left Russell County and settled in Kentucky. One of the six, Frederick, is only a probability for settlement in Kentucky, but he definitely left Russell County. Three brothers migrated to Tennessee and three others died young, probably in Russell County. William and Henry were the two Friley brothers to remain on their father’s land on the Clinch. Henry died in Russell County in 1837. Probably, most of the Frileys of Southwest Virginia are descendants of Henry and William.

 Applies to: William Fraley.

123. Jessee Fraley was married to Mary "Polly" English, daughter of John and Molly English, who settled on "Sugar Hill" overlooking the town of St. Paul, VA, in the year 1772, on the north side of Clinch River, the first settlement ever made in the present bounds of Wise Co., VA. While living here the wife of John English and mother of Mary Fraley, along with her two sons were cruelly murdered 8 March 1787 by the Indians and their scalps were carried into the Cherokee towns. (Vol. 4, p. 262, VA State Papers).

Ordered that James and Jessee Frielys, infants Orphans of Jessee Friley deceased be bound by the overseers of poor according to law.

Jessee Fraley was dead by June, 1801, (Russell Co. Order Book 3, page 148). At the time of his death, Jessee and Polly Fraley had at least two children, James and Jessee, Jr., who were bound out to the Uncle James Fraley in October, 1802, (Russell Order Book 3, p. 230).

 Applies to: Jesse Friley.

124. Jessee Fraley was dead by June, 1801, (Russell Co. Order Book 3, page 148). At the time of his death, Jessee and Polly Fraley had at least two children, James and Jessee, Jr., who were bound out to the Uncle James Fraley in October, 1802, (Russell Order Book 3, p. 230).

At the death of John English in 1797, (Russell Order Book 2, page 290), Jessee and Mary English Fraley became sole heirs to his Estate, which seems to prove that John English had only three children, Mary, the wife of Jessee Fraley, and two little boys killed by Indians, along with their mother in 1787.

129. Frederick died while on a trip to North Carolina. He immigrated to the United States from Rotterdam, Germany by way of England then to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in about 1740.

He married about 1743 and had one child, Ruth who was born in 1745.

About 1758 he married Cloe, one of his cousins with the same surname. the marriage was at the Fraley Chapel in Russell County, Virginia.

He became a citizen 1766 in Rowan County, North Carolina.
"Unprq We know from legal papers that Chloe died in 1823. She outlived Frederick by some thirty years. We figure that if she lived a normal life of 85-90 years of age, she would have been born sometime between 1733-1738, possibly in Rowan County, North Carolina. Their oldest child, James, was born in 1759 so we assume that Chloe and Frederick were married probably in 1758 in Rowan County, North Carolina. We have not been able to find any birth information on Chloe or a Marriage License on Chloe and Frederick. Any reference to Chloe in legal papers, etc., has always referred to her as "Chloe Friley"." by Larry Gregory Information now available proves this to be untrue and that she was the daughter of Squire Boone. She was married at age 15 to a Mr. Donoly and later the same year married Frederick Friley.

Chris was a lifelong learner who continued to read and expand his repertoire of knowledge until he simply could no more. His love for his family was paramount. While his siblings were happy to eat from paper plates on holidays, Chris would polish the silver and wash the china before and after holiday meals. He never missed sending a birthday card to family members with a note and a dollar bill.

Besides his father, Charles “Babe” Friley, grandparents, aunts, uncles and “Aunt Ginny”, who preceded him by six days, waiting to greet him were his childhood friends Grant Johnson, Gary and Roger Vannatter and their dad Rodger, and his beloved cousin Miram Brown.

   A memorial service will be 4 p.m. Sunday at First Baptist Church of New Orleans, with Pastors David Crosby, Fred Luter Jr. and Mike Miller officiating. A reception in the church fellowship hall will follow.

   A second memorial service will be 11 a.m. Saturday, June 11, 2011, at Ingleside Baptist Church in Macon, Ga. Dr. Timothy A. McCoy will officiate.

Mr. McDaniel was born Feb. 7, 1957, to Percy Carl McDaniel and Margie Benton McDaniel.

He was the executive director of the New Orleans Baptist Association. Duane possessed a deep devotion to serving his Lord and Savior and cherished his family. He was an intentional relationship-builder, always looking for ways to build memories with his family through daddy-daughter dates, father-son camping trips and evening fishing jaunts, and making ordinary moments special. In addition, he was an avid LSU Tiger and enjoyed sharing these events with his family and friends. He will be dearly missed by his wife Kathleen, his children and those who loved him.

During his not-quite-two-years at the helm of the urban Baptist association still recovering from the effects of Hurricane Katrina, McDaniel set in place what he called a holistic missional strategy for glorifying God by proclaiming the gospel in word and deed. It was a three-pronged strategy involving compassions ministries, church planting and church health. Gospel-centered compassion ministries included Christian community health centers, volunteer urban mission projects, home repair projects, ministries to the homeless and more.

Compassion ministries and church planting were Duane’s heart. He loved the lost and he loved the needy; he loved New Orleans. It was need that led Mr. McDaniel to New Orleans in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. He brought the church he pastored, Hawaii Kai Church in Honolulu, to New Orleans seven times to help in recovery efforts. The need and the opportunity for the gospel began to grow in his heart, and that was the beginning of God moving him to New Orleans. Duane’s death stunned those in Hawaii who remember him with respect and love.

Even as Mr. McDaniel established relationships with leaders from the Louisiana Baptist Convention and North American Mission Board, as well as with leaders from New Orleans Baptist Association, he began work on what today is called the Christ Community Health Services-NOLA.

Another project Mr. McDaniel was working on was Cross of Christ, a quality, durable, volunteer center for people who want to do ministry in an urban environment. Cross of Christ offers the opportunity for home repair work in impoverished communities of New Orleans hardest hit by Katrina, as well as meeting other community needs. Volunteers will be trained in urban ministry and what it means to follow Christ in an urban, post-modern context. Mr. McDaniel also built a network of church planters starting new works in the greater New Orleans area, and provided opportunities for them to engage with each other.

Duane’s heart was reaching the lost with the gospel, and developing sustainable multiplying churches. He was committed to church planting and he loved church planters. He was committed to this strategy and he kept us focused on compassion ministries, church planting and church health.

Mr. McDaniel graduated from Bossier High School in 1975, Louisiana State University in 1981, earned a master of divinity degree from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky., in 1986, and a doctor of ministry degree from Duane came to faith in Christ while in high school through the witness of Christian friends. He met Major Ian Thomas, an inspirational Christian writer and speaker, while a senior in high school. Major Thomas provided a scholarship for Duane to attend Capernwray Bible College in England upon his graduation from high school. After completing his course of study, Duane traveled with Major Thomas throughout Europe and the Americas for a year as he shared the gospel with audiences large and small. During these formative years, Duane developed a high appreciation for the proclamation of the gospel, and for the breath and diversity of the Kingdom of Christ.

He served University Baptist Church in Baton Rouge as its Youth Minister while a student at LSU, and he later served churches in McComb and Jackson, Miss., before becoming the Associate Pastor at Ingleside Baptist Church in Macon. It was in Macon that Duane met and married Kathleen Honeycutt, his beloved wife who cherished him deeply. He then became the Senior Pastor of Windsor Forest Baptist Church in Savannah, Ga.

After leaving Savannah, he was senior pastor of Hawaii Kai Church in Honolulu from May 2001 to June 2009. In July 2009, Mr. McDaniel became Executive Director of the New Orleans Baptist Association, the former “BAGNO” — Baptist Association of Greater New Orleans.

Mr. McDaniel was preceded in death by his father.

Survivors include his wife, Kathleen Honeycutt McDaniel; four children, Mallory Janelle, Matthew Carl, Benjamin Keanu and Abigail Keikilani McDaniel; his mother, Margie Benton McDaniel of McComb; three brothers, Brian McDaniel and wife Marylynn of Magnolia, David McDaniel of Eagle, Colo., and Bruce McDaniel and wife Lisa of McComb; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts and uncles.

The following is a touching poem written by his sweet daughter, Mallory about her Daddy:

Daddy & Me

Farewell My Precious Daddy

Your Race On Earth Is Done

You Now Live In Heaven

With God And His Gracious Son

...Although My Heart Cries For You

And My Eyes Are Filled With Tears
I Am Thankful That I Had You To Love And Guide Me Through The Years

You Were Always An Inspiration

Your Strength, It Knew No Bounds

I Know That God Has Blessed You

With Many Heavenly Crowns

So Farewell My Precious Daddy

You Will Always Be In My Heart

I Will Remember Your Gentle Teachings

From Which I’ll Never Part

I Love You Daddy.

Watch Over Me Please. I know where you are. Ill always love you.

From the research of Duane McDaniel is the following: (I have a letter from Mallie B. Smith to my grandmother, Viola Benton, dated April 19, 1952 that reads: “Now some of these things you ask about I can verify by remembrance. I am over 63 years old and I remember your father [Henry Breland] and all of Aunt Mandys Breland children. I am sure you must know that Uncle Lish [Elisha] as we called him run away with Aunt Mandy’s brother Seaf’s wife and he took their three little boys Crit, Henry, and Thad with him, slipped them away from their mother and as far as I know she never saw them again. She had two little girls left, Emmy and Alice. Aunt Mandy then moved down in La just about 7 miles below here to where my mother and Dad then lived. Then a man by the name of Sam Spense come along and she married him. I remember seeing her married to him as well as if it had been yesterday and thats been 57 years ago. Then she moved away and I never saw her again.”).

The Wetumpka Times Abstracts

1882, Wetumpka, Elmore, Alabama

March 8, 1882: "Mr. R. R. King, of Coosa County, who killed a mestizo named Simmons near Rockford, some months ago, and made his escape, was arrested in Arkansas, and arrived here on yesterday's morning train. He was at once taken to Rockford where he will be held to answer for his crimes."

April 19, 1882: "Something over two years ago, a man named R. R. King, well-known in this city, killed a quadroon Indian named Franklin, in Rockford, Coosa County. At the time, the homicide was looked upon as a brutal murder, Franklin, being defenseless and begging piteously for his life. King, although quite an influential man, did not desire to stand any trial for the crime and made his escape to the Indian country. He was recently captured and brought back. He was tried last week in the Circuit Court of Coosa County, found guilty of manslaughter, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for three years."

July 26, 1882: "John Sims, who has been confined in jail at Rockford since last February for the killing of Mr. J. Dial Parker, broke-jail the night of the 15th inst., by prizing off the cell door, and made good his escape. Singularly enough, R. R. King, recently convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to the Penitentiary for three years, who was in the same cell, and daily expecting the arrival of Warden Bankhead's messenger to convey him to the Penitentiary, made no effort to get away, but said that he was willing to serve out his time and when he again left Alabama, he would be a free man. Mr. King has since arrived at the Penitentiary, and has been hired by Hon. Thos. Williams."

Hendrick In 1785 Jeremiah Perry (the Colonel) married Temperance Boddie, who was born 1767 and died June 9, 1850. She was the daughter of Senator Nathaniel Boddie, of Nash County, N.C. A little story is told of an incident that took place at her wedding. She was given a handsome silver-mounted side saddle, which was ordered from England by her half-uncle, Micajah Thomas, Sr., who was councillor to King George II in 1769.* He was also Commissioner of Peace, appointed May 27, 1760, from Edgecomb County. The story goes that she rode home on this new saddle when a bride of 18 years. The groom, Capt. Jeremiah Perry, in the confusion of being newly-wed, put the saddle on the wrong way, much to the merriment of the assembled guests. Temperance Boddie lost her mother when a child, and at the age of 14 years kept house for her father and cared for the younger brothers and sisters. Her flax-wheel is still in existence and is owned by the author (Mrs. C.E. Hendrick).

She lived with her son, Robert Patton Crockett, in his rude log cabin in Johnson county until 1860, when death claimed her. She was buried in the Acton cemetery on Walnut Creek, some five miles south of their home, and about six miles east of Granbury, and now a mound and stone slab mark her resting place. 203. US Congressman, Frontiersman, American Legendary Figure. Defender of the Alamo. He was born at the confluence of Limestone Creek and Nolichuckey River in the State of Franklin, which a few years later became Greene County, Tennessee, August 17, 1786. He commanded a battalion of mounted riflemen under General Andrew Jackson in the Creek Campaign in 1813 and 1814. His popularity won him a seat in the Tennessee State House of Representatives, in which he served from 1821 to 1823. He then was an unsuccessful candidate for election in 1825 to the Nineteenth Congress but later was elected to the Twentieth and Twenty-first Congresses, serving from March 4, 1827 to March 3, 1831. He lost reelection in 1830 to the Twenty-second Congress. Later on he was elected as an Anti-Jacksonian to the Twenty-third Congress, and served that term from March 4, 1833 to March 3, 1835. He lost his finally reelection in 1834 to the Twenty-fourth Congress. From there he went to Texas to aid the Texans in their struggle for independence in 1836; joined a band of 186 men in the defense of the Alamo. He was assassinated there in that battle which ended on March 6, 1836. His body along with those others that were killed were destroyed in a funeral pyre at the Alamo. There is controversy over how he was killed and by whom. Most speculate that Crockett tried to kill General Santa Anna, and he was killed upon attacking him. (bio by: Cory Walker)

208. Petition for Pardon

28 SEPT 1820, Lincoln County, Tennessee

To His Excellency the Governor of the State of Tennessee

Your memorialists would respectfully state, that during the present Term of the Lincoln Circuit Court Erasmus Chapman of Lincoln County by the verdict of a jury was found guilty of manslaughter in the Killing of John Warren, and that execution of the judgment is delayed to give an opportunity for the present application.

That the unfortunate transaction occurred upon a provocation given by the deceased, and in a sudden transport of passion - previous to which the parties had been friendly - that said Chapman is an old man nearly sixty years of age - he was a soldier in the revolutionary war - and was in the campaign against the Creek Indians - He has a large family and is very poor and has already been in goal about four months - for many years he has been entirely deprived of the sense of hearing - His family is respectable, and he has always sustained the character of a good citizen, a peacable honest & industrious man - And they believe him a proper subject of executive clemency.

They therefore recommend to your Excellency that the punishment about to (p.2) be inflicted on him by burning in the hand and imprisonment should be remitted or pardoned. September 28th 1820. And they will pray &c.

about 350 names follow, then...:

Editor’s note: This petition (sic) was contributed by Ann Evans Alley, an Archivist with the Tennessee State Library and Archives. The original was found in the papers of Gov.
Joseph McMinn. The spelling and punctuation is copied exactly as found on the petition.
It is of interest that the first twelve names on the petition are evidently those of the convicting jury. The thirteenth name is that of the sheriff.

entered the Service as a soldier in the army of the American confediracy, and as a substitute for a certain

Thomas Coleman of the County last named above, who had been drafted for a tour of three months in the commander of the Regiment, the particular month or year I don not now recollect, but believe it was in the latter part of the summer of the year AD1781 – that I commenced the march from Peter Stubblefields in the County aforesaid (the place ofrendevoize) in a direction to Little York, we proceeded through several counties (the names of many of them I have forgotten) till we reached the town ofWilliamsburg in Virginia where we joined Gen’l.Washingtons main army, who had camped below the town about two miles, at a place where a former Governor under the Brittish government [probably Lord Dunmore in 1775] had thrown up Brest works (as I was told) the remains were plain to be seen, At this camp we staid some time how long I can not recollect; while the army continued here I frequently stood sentry at a place called the Stone Bridge which was made over a creek that entied into York river not far distant;

Virginia Militia, John Tankesley [sic: John Tankersley] being my Captain Edward Stephens [sic: Edward

Stevens] commander of the Brigade, and Meriweather alias Meriweather [sic: Meriwether]

while on duty one night a Boat sailed or was rowed up the creek to the bridge, I hailed it, and detained the Boat, till a file of men and an Officer from our camp came; the Boat proved to be a Brittish one, and came with a flag bearing an American Colonel who had been taken prisoner by them and was dangerously wounded I may have forgotten his name but I now think the Col’os. name was either, Scamel, or Campbell, he was immediately sent to the Doctors at Williamsburg on a litter the Brittish boat was suffered to return; Shortly after this we (meaning the whole american army) marched to Little York where Cornwallais was stationed, and encamped around the town on the Land side on the water side it was blocked up by the French Fleet we now commenced throwing up brest works, perhaps about a mile from the buildings, or perhaps from the Brittish Brestworks, and we continued at the work for many nights & days advancing each succeeding night a little nearer the enemy. all this time the Brittish were continually firing their cannon at us whenever they could see where we were,When we had got as near (as I thought) our Commander wished, a flag arrived at Gen’l.Washingtons markee from the Brittish Commander Corn Wallace [sic: Cornwallis, 17 Oct] (with a proposition to surrender his army prisoners of war, the terms not being agreed to, as soon as the flag returned, Gen’l Knox ordered the officers of the artillery to open fire on the Brittish works [see endnote], at this instant I was below the cannon in the ditch in advance a little of the platform on which the cannon played, the shock of the explosion over my head was so powerful that in an instant I was deprived of my hearing and have continued so ever since; I was so bad that I was sent to the hospital, but I did not stay long there, but returned to my station being more willing to endure the malady than be deprived of my brother companions in arms, for some time after this I could hear a little, but as I got older my hearing grew worse, and for several years past I can scarcely hear the loudest thunder, notwithstanding I continued to do duty as before, throwing up banks, standing on the watch tower, and performing all the usual duties of a soldier, till the surrender of the enemy [19 Oct]. And when the Brittish march out to stack their arms, I was in one of the columns; As well as I remember the regulars formed one column, and the Militia the other, between which the prisoners of war marched out of the town and grounded their arms at the head of the Columns, and then returned into the town, and in a few days were marched out again and guarded by our troops to the upper part of the State I assisted in guarding them till they reached the falls of the Rappahannock when my time of service expired and I was discharged, a written discharge was sent to me some time afterwards but I do not recollect by whom it was signed but think it was signed by my Captain Tankesley, this discharge I put into my pocket Book which was afterwards burnt with many other papers; After leaving the army I return’d to Spottsylvania aforesaid and continued to live there till I removed to Culpepper Virginia where I lived several years, and then removed to Row ann [sic: Rowan] County in the State of North Carolina where I lived many years, after which I removed to Lincoln County State of Tennessee where I live some time, I lived in this state during the Creek and Siminole War, being too old for an active Soldier

I went along with the Tennessee Troops on that expedition with my waggon & team as a transport for the provisions of the army I continued in this service nine months, I had two sons in this campaign, one a lieutenant; Some time after my return from the army I visited my relations in the State of Mississippi and not long after removed to the County of Lincoln in the State of Missouri near the town of Troy, lived here a short time, and then moved to the County of St. Francois [Saint Francois] in said State, lived there three years and then removed to Howard County State of aforesaid where I now live. I have never before applied for a pension and hereby relinquish all right to claim a pension by virtue of any act of Congress passed before the 7 of June 1832. I have no documentary evidence to establish my service as a soldier of the revolution nor do I know of any person in this State by whom I can prove the same: And I will here remark that owing to my great deafness I am unable to communicate many circumstances which might be important in the establishment of my claim from not being able to hear what is said to me; It may be said that questions can be put in writing, but these questions are frequently put in such language or words that I cannot answer them, either in the negative or affirmative which make it laborious to the writer as well as my self, and my true meaning mistaken. But I cannot suppose, that my country is more unfortunate than myself, and will be deaf to the claim of one whose greatest calamity has been produced by his devotion to her dearest cause, merely because that misfortune prevents him from making a full disclosure of his services.

[Certified 6 Nov 1832]

NOTES:

Chapman’s statement that Henry Knox’s artillery fired immediately after the delivery of Cornwallis’s proposal of a ceasefire to discuss surrender is unlikely and not supported by other accounts.

Other accounts also state that the British marched between Americans on one side and French on the other, not between American regulars and militiamen.

Correspondence in the file indicates that Chapman was still attempting to obtain a pension as late as 1850. The pension act of 1832, however, required at least six months service.

While John and his brothers were away, their family was killed by Indians, with the exception of two small brothers and a sister — who was scalped, but survived. John and his family crossed the Great Smoky Mountains into the Tennessee territory, where John became a magistrate, commissioner of roads, and eventually a mill owner and tavern keeper. In 1786, his son David was born as the fifth of nine children in a log cabin near the Nolichucky River — not, perhaps, quite on the mountain top, but certainly in the hill country.

212. Crockett's ancestry begins in France, where Antoine Desasure Perronette de Crocketagne (b 1643), second in command to the household troops of King Louis XIV, made the serious mistake of becoming a Protestant. In 1672, shortly after the birth of his first son, he had to flee the country with the other Huguenots. After a brief stay in England, he settled in Cork, Ireland, where his other children were born — including, in 1676, Joseph Louis, the direct ancestor of Davy Crockett. Possibly to avoid drawing attention to himself as a Frenchman, possibly because the Irish couldn't pronounce the moniker, de Crocketagne... changed his name to Crockett. Joseph Louis Crockett married a girl from Donegal, and the two of them emigrated to Virginia in around 1708.

221. Married James Stout in 1712 in Monmouth County, New Jersey

Children of James Stout and Catherine Simpson: John, James, Joseph, David, Mary, Jacob, Jonathan, Rebecca

James Stout and Catharine Simpson settled on a tract of 700 acres near Wertsville, New Jersey. His death was estimated to be about thirty-six years of age.

The information taken from "Pioneers of Old Hopewell" by Ralph Ege, relates an account of Catherine Simpson, James Stout's widow. "...she was above average in intelligence and ability.... At all events, the bewitching charms of this fascinating widow of Amwell, proved absolutely irresistible to Hopewell Samuel, or he would not have volunteered at the age of twenty to take her brood of six Stout stalwart sons under his sheltering wing. His eldest stepson was but four years his junior, but subsequent events proved that there had been good discipline in the household and the family had been reared in the wholesome atmosphere and environment which tends to develop just the kind of sturdy manhood which was one of the marked characteristics of this family of pioneers."

223. The fleet arrived at New Amsterdam in August, 1664, and that place and all the New Netherlands were surrendered by Governor Stuyvesant, to the English, on the 27th day of the same month. This English company of Puritans, living on Long Island and in New England, having obtained permission of Governor Stuyvesant to settle on the banks of the Raritan River, commenced their negotiations with the Indian sachems December 5, 1663; and concluded the first Indian purchase of land, which was made from Poppomora, chief of the Navesink Indians to John Bowne, James Hubbard, William Golding, Richard Stout, Samuel Spicer, and John Tilton, Jr, all of Gravesend, Long Island, by deed dated January 25, 1664 — the original record of which is at Albany, New York, and copies are also recorded at Perth Amboy and Trenton, New Jersey.

Having purchased the land, John Bowne, Richard Stout and three others, with their families, five families in all, came and made their settlement in the spring or summer of 1664 - nearly a year before the patent was issued.

Having already complied with the first conditions of Governor Nicolls' proclamation, the company made application to the Governor for a grant to cover the purchase already made and others which they intended to make. This grant embraced all of the present county of Monmouth, and a part of Ocean and Middlesex Counties. It is dated April 8, 1665. It is known as the famous "MONMOUTH PATENT".

 Applies to: Richard Stout\textsuperscript{1440}.

224. The early Dutch settler Penelope Van Princis Kent Stout, dubbed the "Mother of Middletown", may also be New Jersey's most famous survivor. The daughter of Baron Van Princis (a.k.a. Van Prinzen), she was born in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, in 1622. After her marriage to John Kent c.1640, bride and groom set sail for New Amsterdam (present day New York), but near the end of the journey their ship ran aground near what is now Highlands in Monmouth County, New Jersey. Although the other stranded passengers resumed their journey on foot, Penelope stayed behind in the Navesink woods with Kent, who had become too ill to travel. There the couple fell prey to hostile Indians who, after killing her husband, left Penelope to die. Partially scalped and bleeding from an abdominal wound, she was rescued by friendly Indians and eventually recovered from her injuries. After her return to the European settlements, Penelope married an English-born colonist, Richard Stout, with whom she had a large family. In time the Stouts came to settle in Middletown, NJ, where Penelope lived to the ripe old age of 110. Several of the Stouts' colonial era descendants are interred in the Presbyterian Burial Ground off King's Highway in Middletown, and while the exact location of Penelope's grave is unknown, she, too, was buried in this Monmouth County town. (bio by: Nikita Barlow)
The first Medalian inscription—Commemorative medallion depicting Penelope's return to New Jersey with her second husband, Richard Stout, one of their 10 children, & a welcoming Lenni Lenape chief. Dubbed the "Mother of Middletown" & the "First Lady of Monmouth County", more than 10,000 Americans are among her descendants. -Nikita Barlow

The 2nd Medalioan inscription—

According to First Families, Old Buncombe, Internet Site:

"Robert and his wife Rebecca, established a home on the site of the present Laura Shuford's home, near the present Swanannoa Elementary School. They owned 1,000 acres of both sides of the Swannanoa River. Robert and Rebecca were Presbyterians and donated the land for the Patton Meeting House (Presbyterian) which is believed to be the first church established west of the Blue Ridge Mountains. The couple also donated the land for the Patton Cemetery, located 100 feet east of the Meeting House, and believed to be the first white cemetery in Buncombe County. The Patton Meeting House was later moved about a mile away and became the Swannanoa First Presbyterian Church (Piney Grove). Robert & Rebecca had a family of eight children, 2 sons and 6 daughters. Rebecca Patton died sometime between 1820 and 1830, and is believed to be buried in the Patton Cemetery."

"Elizabeth "Betsy" remembered the 1,000 acre grant of land given to her father, Robert Patton, for his services in the Revolutionary War. It lay untouched in Indian Lands on the Rutherford Fork of the Obion River. Now was the time for it to be put to use. It was possible because in 1818 Andrew Jackson, ever ready to push the Indian tribes further west, had led yet another commission to treaty with the Chicasaw tribe for the sale of west Tennessee plus a large part of western Kentucky. In a meeting near Tuscumbia, Alabama, he bribed the Chicasaw chiefs with a $20,000 gift, in return they sold their land for about four cents an acre.

This gave Robert Patton clear title to his long neglected claim. Davey Crockett and his oldest sons set of to scout the Patton grant. By September 1823, Betsy and Davey and their eight children (Betsy's two by James Patton, Davey's three by Polly Finley, and three born to them, were installed in a log cabin on a plateau above the occasionally flooding Obion River and away from the mosquitoes".

My Mama, Alice Pearl Barrentine Shingler, was the oldest of 12 children. She married at the very young age of 15 and had her first child, me, at the age of 17. She was a stay at home Mom who raised 6 children in the Christian faith. She never even learned to drive until she was about 31 years old( Abd. 1962) She tried to learn with Daddy in the car, but he just made her nervous, so she mostly just taught herself. She was very devoted to her church, Woodlawn Baptist, and made sure that we all went every week. She loved singing in the choir and doing work for the church. Actually, her first job ever, after she had 6 children and the youngest was old enough, was at Woodlawn, part time. She and my father divorced in 1983. She never remarried. She found out that she had breast cancer at the end of 1990, but did not tell us until the first of 1991, because she didn't want to spoil our Christmas. That's the kind of person she was, she always thought of other people's feelings before her own. She had surgery and then went through radiation and chemo. Almost exactly five years to the day, her cancer came back. She then went through another round of chemo, which stopped it for about another 2 to 3 years. She lived 2 more years after that. She never lost her faith and she fought it to the end, but we lost her on New Years Day, January 1st, 2001. All of her children and 3 of her sisters were right by her side when the Lord called her home. We love her and miss her so very much.

286. This may not be the exact relationship, but the 1900 census has Rebecca Schmidhart as the grandmother living with the Joseph Alexander and Mary A. McBroom family. The 1910 census has Abbie McBroom as a half-sister of John Clark living with the John and Katie Clark family. This seems about the only relationship scenario to make that happen, half-siblings.

From the research of Duane McDaniel is the following: (I have a letter from Mallie B. Smith to my grandmother, Viola Benton, dated April 19, 1952 that reads: “Now some of these things you ask about I can verify by remembrance. I am over 63 years old and I remember your father [Henry Breland] and all of Aunt Mandy’s Breland children. I am sure you must know that Uncle Lish [Elisha] as we called him run away with Aunt Mandy’s brother Seaf’s wife and he took their three little boys Crit, Henry, and Thad with him, slipped them away from their mother and as far as I know she never saw them again. She had two little girls left, Emmy and Alice. Aunt Mandy then moved down in La just about 7 miles below here to where my mother and Dad then lived. Then a man by the name of Sam Spense come along and she married him. I remember seeing her married to him as well as if it had been yesterday and thats been 57 years ago. Then she moved away and I never saw her again.”)

Elisha married Emma Mac Cockrell who was divorced from William Wilson Cockrell, father of Bessie Louise Cockrell who was Martha Alice Lewis (Friley) grandmother. Elisha was Robert Friley III's, Martha's husband, great-great grandfather.

According to Fisher Funeral home records, Elisha died on Jan 27, 1929. The cost of his funeral included a Rosewood finish coffin ($85), embalming ($35), wash, dress and shave ($8), burial robe, underclothes and socks ($12), use of ambulance and services ($15) and 2 funeral designs ($10) for a total of $168. She claimed he verbally abused her, he said she had a bad temper. In an era when divorces were only granted for adultery or abandonment, the Lewis' got theirs because they were just sick of each other.

Family oral history says that 2 Henry brothers came here Alabama (most likely transient through Coosa County, Alabama) one step ahead of the law. One brother changed his name to Dunn and moved to north Warren County; the other changed his name to Lewis and moved to the southern part of the county.

This is probably correct, as a Henry family later moved to Warren County and located on property next to the Dunn's. The Lewis family later moved to land in the same community. The three (3) families remained closed for years. Read on:

And it's ties to the William Lewis Family of Oak Ridge Community
(Excerpts from writings by local historian Gordon Cotton)

Russell Smith, oldest son of Lucius and Anna, was appointed by the court as executor of the estates for both Lucius and Jesse. Rebecca Smith was the first-born to Lucius and Anna, in 1794, followed by Russell in 1796, Hiram in 1798, Nancy, 1800, Elmore, 1802; twins Benjamin and Franklin in 1806, and Sidney Merranda in 1809; there may have been others.

Lucius and Anna Smith, who along with Jesse were pioneers at the settlement of Palmyra on the Mississippi River, owned very little - two slaves, three sheep, two cows, the usual farm and household items, and 127.75 acres. He still owed a payment on the farm and owed John Payton $1,200 for a mortgage on Grymes and Reeves, a store at Palmyra - Payton had bought the mortgage from Smith. E. Reeves paid the mortgage, Henry Turner bought the land, and Russell Smith bought the slaves, Sam and Amy, and other possessions, leaving $674.52, 1/2 to be divided among the children.

Jesse Smith was a farmer and also had other commercial interests, but the records don't specify what they were. Frequently Russell Smith made trips for him to Attakapas and Plaquemines parishes in Louisiana, and Jesse paid all expenses. Also unexplained was a lawsuit against Jesse brought by Elijah Smith in St. Mary's Parish in 1811, a suit which Jesse lost to the tune of $1,163.75 plus interest, a judgment he had not paid. Russell had been in business with Jesse and owed him $771.21. Jesse's personal estate, which included two slaves, Guy and Sarah, a feather bed and a ship's yawl, was valued at $1,725.47 1/2. To settle the estate, Russell bought the slaves, feather bed, and cotton seed and settled the suit in Louisiana.

In addition to administering two estates at the same time, Russell Smith was named guardian of his younger siblings, Elmore, Benjamin and Sidney Merranda. Rebecca first married Dr. William Mason and then Bennet M. Hines. Nancy married Charles Henderson and then William W. Gaines. Hiram moved to Arkansas. In later years, about 1834, Sidney Merranda Smith was murdered, probably in North Alabama by someone named White; nothing more has been found about the event.

Russell Smith's life took on another dimension when he applied for a marriage license Nov. 5, 1819; he married Mrs. Catherine Lewis Grayson., widow of Samuel Grayson and "natural" daughter of William Lewis. The groom was 23, the bride a year older. She was the mother of a daughter, Susan. Catherine Grayson was not only a young widow, but her father had died a few weeks before her marriage to Smith. She was born in South Carolina and no doubt came to Mississippi Territory about 1803 with her father and stepmother, Mary. In 1811 she married Samuel Grayson, and their daughter was born about 1814. Little is known about Grayson other than he was a Warrenton blacksmith.

Soon after arriving in the area, William Lewis gave land for a cemetery and, according to his tombstone epitaph, built Hopewell Methodist Church, the first church in what is now Warren County.

William and Mary Lewis' marriage wasn't a happy one, and the couple went through a series of separations and reconciliations before Mary, in September 1818, sued for divorce, claiming that William verbally abused her. He retorted that the marriage had failed because of her "unhappy temper and disposition." There really were no accepted grounds for divorce -adultery or abandonment - but Mary and William were sick of each other and decided the marriage would not work. The court agreed, and Mary, who had been married before she met William and had three children, had retained her dowry, so with $3,000, a horse and a slave, she departed William's bed and board.

A year after the divorce, William Lewis wrote that he was sick, "in low health and not expected to recover," and penned his will, leaving most of his estate to his daughter Catherine.

Within a few weeks he was dead, Catherine was married to Russell Smith, and Smith was the owner of a nice plantation, Sylvanvale, which included a graveyard and a church named Hopewell.

Russell Smith wanted to make sure the court understood Ins la.st wishes, so in this will in 1836, he made it perfectly clear (li.il "none of my relations have anything to do with my estate..."
To be explicit, Smith stressed that should the executors In li.e! dioscn decline, they and the court should be aware of "the great aversion I have to any of my own sisters or their husbands, or of any of their descendants, my brother, Hiram, his wife, or any of his descendants, having anything to do in the management of my dear daughter or any part of my estate..."
The rift in the Smith family had come following the death of Benjamin Franklin Smith, who died "of a hurt from the fall of a tree on the 1st day of March, 1831," according to the family Bible. Benjamin, a twin, had also taken his brother's name, Franklin, following the brother's death.

Russell Smith had been his brother's guardian following the deaths of his parents in 1815. For a time after reaching adulthood, Benjamin lived in Huntsville, Ala., but he came home and on March 31, 1830, married Susan C. Grayson in Claiborne County. She was the daughter of Catherine Lewis Grayson Smith. Russell Smith was her stepfather; now he was also her brother-in-law.

Benjamin and Susan had been married less than a year at the time of his death. Some months later their daughter was born, and Susan named her Ann Franklin Smith. After Benjamin's death, Susan asked the court to appoint Russell Smith administrator, which was done on April 29, 1831. Benjamin, who was only 26, had a small estate valued at $994.50, including two slaves.

Susan and the baby lived with her mother and stepfather, Catherine and Russell Smith. All three females died in 1833, Susan on June 29, Catherine on July 6, and Ann Franklin on Oct. 4. Bible records state that Susan was sick only 11 hours before she died of cholera. Russell Smith added the legal aspects of his step-daughter's estate to that of her husband's.

Russell was also involved in the estate of his deceased brother-in-law, Charles Henderson, who had married Nancy Smith Oct. 10, 1822. Charles, son of William and Dorothy V. Henderson of Natchez, died July 17, 1829, "two days sail from New York." He was a very wealthy man who had a personal estate worth $13,264.25 plus notes due him totaling more than $4,500, his debtors including many of the leading men of early Warren County.

Charles Henderson was survived not only by Nancy but also by a minor son, John Henderson, and on April 25, 1831, Russell Smith was named guardian of the lad. On Sept. 23, 1833, he (Made a move that, if successful, would have put him in control of the entire estate: he asked the court to declare his sister, Nancy Henderson "an idiot, lunatic" or incompetent. In his petition to the court he advised the judge that Mrs. Henderson was "possessed of considerable property," and he feared that some unscrupulous person would take it from her. Perhaps Smith had hoped to stop her second marriage, for in 1833 she married William W. Gaines.

Hiram Smith, who lived in Arkansas Territory, was none too happy with the way his brother, Russell, administered the family legal matters, and in 1834 he hired an attorney. Hiram raised questions about how his parents' estate had been handled years before and also the recent disposition of the property of the Benjamin Smith family. The husbands of Nancy and Rebecca, W.W. Gaines and Bennet M. Hines, joined Hiram in charges against Russell, and the parties decided to submit the dispute to three arbitrators, John Lane, George Selser and Thomas Galloway.

There were a number of questions the relatives wanted Russell to answer: Why did he collect $30 for a casket when it cost only $15? Why did he charge room and board for Ben's widow and child, who were his stepchild and grandchild? - "You ought not to have charged anything," they said, and what he did charge was too high.

Why did he charge for extra clothing for the widow and child when she had supplied it herself? Why did he charge her for boarding her slaves, yet he used their services and then claimed he had bought them? Did he ever pay? What had he done with the slave given to Susan Smith by her sister-in-law, Nancy? If he sold it, did he not owe the money to the estate?

Russell Smith had charged the estate $112 for medicine and for the funeral for Ann Franklin Smith, yet she was at the Hines residence when she was sick and when she died, and the Hines had provided the medicine and other needs.

The decision of the arbitrators was made on Dec. 29, 1834. Russell Smith would be allowed to keep the slaves, but he would have to pay the other three heirs $360.25 each. In March 1835 the sums were paid to Hiram Smith and Bennet M. Hines, but William Gaines, on behalf of his wife, Nancy, declined their share, assigning it to Hiram.

Russell Smith would never forgive his relatives. Perhaps Russell Smith and Mary Elizabeth Mason were in love, or maybe they were lonely. For whatever reason, the two Warrenton residents married on Jan. 15, 1834. Smith's wife, Catherine, had been dead about six months. Mason's husband, William, about seven.

The new Mrs. Smith was born a Sessions in Adams County on Aug. 20, 1806. She married David C. Griffin on March 29, 1822. He died on Nov. 8, 1830, and in November 1832 she married Dr. William Mason. The second husband died on June 10, 1833, after less than a year of marriage.

Russell Smith had a daughter, Martha, by his first wife, and Mary had a son, David, by her first husband. Both children were minors when the couple wed. Mary Smith's third marriage was also a brief one, for she died on Nov. 4, 1835, not yet 30 years of age.

Not long after Mary's death, Russell Smith wrote his will, stating that though his health was good and his mind was sound, he knew everyone must die. He first instructed that he be buried "between my two dear departed companions in the Grave Yard on my Plantation."

To his stepson, William D. Griffin, Smith left 640 acres of land and about 20 slaves, to be claimed when Griffin reached 21. Should he die before then, the property should be equally divided among Smith's brothers-in-law, E.J. Sessions, P.W., W.L, and Charles A. DeFrance. The balance of his estate should go to his daughter, Martha Ann Smith, when she reached the age of 18.

But what if all of those named should die before the provisions of the will could be carried out? Smith wrote, "My slaves are to be fitted out with 3 new suits of cloths, one year's provisions, and $100 in cash, to be delivered to them after the vessel is ready to sail from New Orleans for Liberia, where they are to go and enjoy perfect liberty, provided the Colonization Society will take charge of them and they wish to go." If they chose to remain here, then all of Smith's property should be sold to the highest bidder.

If all of his initial plans and which failed for any reason, Smith wanted his money dispersed in several ways. His orphaned cousin, Malinda Gillock, was to get $5,000 annually. He wished that $15,000 be invested in stock in the Warren County Academy which was being contemplated for Oak Ridge, also $15,000 in stock in the Quarterly Meeting of the Methodist Conference in Warren County, to be used "in educating the poor children of this county." The remainder was to be equally divided between the Mississippi Methodist Annual Conference and the Methodist Book Concern of New York.

Russell Smith named Egbert J. Sessions and Park W. PfFrance as executors. He asked that the Rev. John Lane, Methodist minister, be the guardian for Martha Ann and that she he given a classic education. Henry Fernandis and Tobias Stephens were witnesses. (The will is difficult to read, and a date juumot be discerned.)

Russell Smith took a trip north, traveling to Pennsylvania, and the family Bible states that he died in Philadelphia on June 20, 1836. He was brought home and buried between his two wives at Hopewell graveyard. His will was probated in July 1836. Smith was only 40 years old.

Near the center of the cemetery is a crypt, still in good condition, in honor of William Lewis, and erected by his granddaughter, Martha A. Sessions, in 1851. The epitaph states, "A native of South Carolina who settled at this place in 1803. Shortly after he gave this for a public burial place and built Hopewell Church. He died in the year of 1819. Age 50 years."

A hand carved into the marble, with a finger pointing to the name of the church, spelled in all capitals, leaves no doubt of the contribution made by William Lewis. Without him, there would have been no Hopewell.

352. Samuel Leist was born on March 6, 1831 in Oberbipp, Switzerland and died on November 17, 1920. He was the son of Jacques (Jacob) b. 1808 believed to be in Oberbipp, Switzerland and Marie Reber (Mary) b. 1805 . After arriving in America Samuel moved to Issaquena County, Mississippi at Mound View Plantation in 1853. The plantation consisted of 721 acres, 278 acres in Sharkey County and 443 acres in Issaquena County. Also on the plantation was a well known boat landing called "Leist Landing", a cotton gin, store, 1-room schoolhouse and other homes. The cotton gin burned in late October 1899. Leist Landing site was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 1988. The site# is 22sh520;22N1. The plantation was near Harworth. Sam served in the Confederate army while his brother Jacques Jr served in the Northern Army during the Civil War. He was buried at Mound View Plantation on "the Holly Mound", a flat top Indian mound that also served as a burial ground for many of the Leist family. The plantation was lost for a debt to DJ Schlenker, a wholesaler grocer in Vicksburg by Samuel Leist who could not write and only made his X on the document. After the death of Samuel in 1920 and the loss of the plantation in 1923, Samuel's son, Albert Leist and his family moved to 1615 Openwood Street, Vicksburg, MS in 1923.

353. Adeline married first Bartley Tucker on October 23, 1867 (marriage book H, p.65, Vicksburg, MS, Warren County. They had one child, Bartley H. Tucker, Jr. (he later married Estelle Crocker on 1 April, 1890) Bartley, Sr. died.

354. Jacques (Jacob) Leist, Sr. b. 1 Mar 1808 in Oberbipp, Switzerland, died Feb 1898 in Van Wert, Ohio, married Marie (Mary) Reber who was b. 9 Dec 1805 in Switzerland and died 15 May 1886 in Hoaglin, Van Wert, Ohio. Jacques and Marie married 1830 in Canton, Bern, Switzerland. Jacques and Marie immigrated to America with their 6 children leaving Havre, Deutschland on the ship "South Carolina" family number 244186, arriving in New York on 29 Aug, 1846, then continuing on to Salem, North Carolina. This is proved by my copy of the original passport written in French issued in Canton de Bern, Switzerland. The ship document lists his name as Jacob and hers as Mary and I found them on an 1850 and 1880 census in Van Wert listed as Jacob and Mary. Perhaps they already had relatives in Van Wert and that is why they settled there. It appears all except Samuel stayed in Ohio, Sam came to Issaquena County, MS in 1853.

Imigrating to America with Jacques and Marie were their 6 children all linked below except Jacques (Jacob) Leist Jr. and Marie which have not been found as of this date.

355. Mary, wife of Jacob Leist, was born in Oberbipp, Canton Berne, Switzerland Dec 9, 1804 and died in Van Wert Ohio, May 16, 1886, She entered into marriage in 1830 and came to America in 1846.

Mary was converted among the German Methodists and united with the Evangelical Church in 1851, of which she was a member until her death. She left a husband and 5 children to mourn her death. The funeral took place at the Evangelical Church on 17 May 1886. She was 84 years 5 months and 7 days old. Her children were:

1) Samuel Leist born 6 March 1831 in Oberbipp Switzerland, died 17 Nov 1920 in Issaquena County, Mississippi

2) Marie Leist born 16 Feb 1832 in Solohurn, Switzerland,

3) Jacques (Jacob) Leist, Jr. born 1834 in Switzerland

4) Marianne Leist born Sept 1840 in Switzerland died 13 Feb 1891 and married Christian Mohr on 30 Sept 1856 in Van Wert, Ohio

5) Catherine Leist born 1843 in Switzerland, died 12 Sept 1915, married Clarence Jacob Haven about 1840

6) Elizabeth Leist born 12 Nov 1835 in Oberbipp, Switzerland, died 11 June 1933 in Van Wert, Ohio, married George Frederick Mohr, Jr.
